

And The Results are in...

	Black Rock Forest	Central Park
observers	34	20
area covered	200 acres	20 acres
total observations	898	509
species	264	197
bird species	40	29
plant species	185	150
#(%) research grade obs	153/898	104/509
% native	84.4	70

Most Observed Species in Hudson Highlands Project

Striped Maple
Acer pensylvanicum
13 Observations

Photo by Ivette Torres Rodriguez

Canada Mayflower
Maianthemum canadense
11 Observations

Photo by Kelly Hogan

Most Observed Species in Hudson Highlands Project

American Witchhazel
Hamamelis virginiana
9 Observations

Photo by Aaron Selequini

Christmas Fern
Polystichum acrostichoides
9 Observations

Photo by Brienne Cliadakis

Garlic Mustard
Alliaria petiolata
9 Observations

Photo by Kelly Hogan

Most Observed Species in New York City

American Robin
Turdus migratorius
16 Observations

Photo by Ryan Kachani

Mayapple
Podophyllum peltatum
11 Observations

Photo by Deborah Gardner

Most Observed Species in New York City

Red Columbine
Aquilegia canadensis
8 Observations

Photo by Sherry Tom

Eastern Gray Squirrel
Sciurus carolinensis
7 Observations

Photo by Dan Olsen

Celandine Poppy
Stylophorum diphyllum
7 Observations

Photo by Gina Olsen

The Award for Most Observations Goes to...

Hudson Highlands Project

Cathy Marczyk

146 Observations

New York City Project

Gina Olsen

106 Observations

The Award for Most Species Goes to...

Hudson Highlands Project

Ivette Torres
Rodriguez

45 Species

New York City Project

Sherry Tom

36 Species